Where: SeniorLAW Center
2 Penn Center
1500 JFK Blvd, Ste 1501
Philadelphia, PA 19102

Please join SeniorLAW Center to learn about a great opportunity for pro bono service!

SeniorLAW Center will train volunteer paralegals on the logistics of handling an initial telephone call on the Pennsylvania SeniorLAW HelpLine, a project of SeniorLAW Center. The HelpLine is a toll-free telephone service that offers free and confidential legal counseling, information, brief services and referrals to Pennsylvanians, age 60 and older, throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The HelpLine handles a wide and interesting universe of civil legal issues, including real estate/housing, consumer protection, family law, estate and advanced planning, public benefits, and elder abuse.

Volunteer paralegals will be trained on our client database and how to handle client intake activities – returning calls, collecting demographic information, and determining eligibility – and will elicit additional information to identify the legal issues. This is a telephone based service. Written instructional materials will be provided. A great pro bono opportunity!

Please email Joanna Jarzebowska at jjarzebowska@seniorlawcenter.org or call 215-701-3216 by April 9th to register! Please, feel free to bring your lunch.
